

Second Quarter 2013
Conference Call
August 13, 2013

Safe Harbor

Statements in this presentation, including the information set forth as to the future financial or operating performance of Atlas Financial Holdings, Inc., American Country Insurance Company, American Service Insurance Company and/or Gateway Insurance Company (collectively, “Atlas”), that are not current or historical factual statements may constitute “forward looking” information within the meaning of securities laws. Such forward looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Atlas, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward looking statements. When used in this presentation, such statements may include, among other terms, such words as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “believe,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate” and other similar terminology. These statements reflect current expectations, estimates and projections regarding future events and operating performance and speak only as to the date of this presentation. Readers should not place undue importance on forward looking statements and should not rely upon this information as of any other date. These forward looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Some of the factors facing Atlas that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or underlying such forward looking statements include: (i) market fluctuations, changes in interest rates or the need to generate liquidity; (ii) access to capital; (iii) recognition of future tax benefits on realized and unrealized investment losses; (iv) managing expansion effectively; (v) conditions affecting the industries in which we operate; (vi) competition from industry participants; (vii) attracting and retaining independent agents and brokers; (viii) comprehensive industry regulation; (ix) our holding company structure; (x) our ratings with A.M. Best; (xi) new claim and coverage issues; (xii) claims payments and related expenses; (xiii) reinsurance arrangements; (xiv) credit risk; (xv) our ability to retain key personnel; (xvi) our ability to replace or remove management or Directors; (xvii) future sales of common shares; (xviii) public company challenges; and (xix) failure to effectively execute our business plan. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. See also “Risk Factors” listed in the Company’s most recent registration statement filed with the SEC. Many of these issues can affect Atlas’ actual results and could cause the actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward looking statements made by, or on behalf of, Atlas. Readers are cautioned that forward looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and should not place undue reliance on them. In formulating the forward looking statements contained in this presentation, it has been assumed that business and economic conditions affecting Atlas will continue substantially in the ordinary course. These assumptions, although considered reasonable at the time of preparation, may prove to be incorrect.

When discussing our business operations, we may use certain terms of art which are not defined under U.S. GAAP. In the event of any unintentional difference between presentation materials and our GAAP results, investors should rely on the financial information in our public filings.

2013 Second Quarter Highlights

Continued Improvement in Underwriting Results

- Combined ratio improved by 16.5 percentage points year-over-year to 95.0%
- Underwriting results improved by $1.7 million

Geographic Expansion / Core Growth

- Gross premium written increased by 79.2%, which included an increase of 90.6% in core commercial auto business
- Actively distributed core products in 40 states plus D.C. during the three month period ended June 30, 2013
- Increasing geographic diversification
 - 46.7% from top five states for the three months ended June 30, 2013, compared to 63.8% in the prior year period

Strength in Agent Network / Pricing

- Continued return of business from independent agent network
- Pricing trends remain favorable

Integration of Gateway Insurance Continuing as Planned

- Majority of Gateway's operations now completely integrated with Atlas platform
- New state licenses obtained in acquisition beginning to benefit company

Subsequent Event – Re-purchase of Preferred Stock

Book Value per Ordinary Share
(in '000s, except for shares and per share data)	June 30, 2013	December 31, 2012	Pro Forma, Post Preferred Stock Buy-Back
Shareholders' Equity	$69,582	$59,864	$53,382
Preferred stock in equity	$20,000	$18,000	$2,000
Accumulated dividends on preferred stock	$45	$1,620	$45

Shares outstanding	8,166,891	6,144,395	8,166,891
Book value per common share outstanding	$6.07	$6.55	$6.29

Liquidation amount of $18.0 million and were purchased by Atlas for $16.2 million

- $7.5 million of the purchase price paid in cash
- Additional cash from the exercise of outstanding Atlas warrants will also be paid to the current holder of Atlas' preferred stock eligible for redemption.
- Any remaining unpaid portion of the $16.2 million purchase price will be owed by January 13, 2014, other than an amount up to $1 million, which will be owed by April 30, 2014.

Transaction simplifies capital structure / immediately accretive

- Eliminates potential future dilution
- Eliminates dividend payments

On a pro forma basis, the redemption of the preferred shares would have resulted in diluted earnings per ordinary share for the three month period ended June 30, 2013 of $0.40 and book value per share of $6.29, had the transaction occurred this quarter.
